Rule 7(a)

Composition and Appointment: There shall be a County Executive Committee in each county consisting of the County Chairman, the County Vice Chairman, two State Committee members, two Congressional District Committee members per Congressional District within the county, ~~and one State Representative, one State Senator elected in the county, one legislator selected by the County Chairman and, if more than one legislator, one selected by the County Vice Chairman. If such selected legislator's district includes more than one county, the county of their residence shall be one in which they may serve on the committee.~~

In addition, not more than 25 men and women may be appointed jointly by the County Chairman and Vice Chairman. If they cannot agree upon such appointments, then the Chairman shall appoint not more than 13 and the Vice Chairman shall appoint not more than 12 of such members in addition to those enumerated herein, except in counties whose population is 200,000 or more, then such addition not more than 51 men and women may be appointed jointly by the County Chairman and Vice Chairman. If they cannot agree upon such appointments, then the Chairman should appoint not more than 26 and the Vice Chairman should appoint not more than 25 of such membership in addition to those enumerated herein. They shall serve at the pleasure of the County Chairman and Vice Chairman.

Where the Chairman and Vice Chairman have been unable to agree on such appointments and 13 or 26 appointments have been made by the Chairman and 12 or 25 by the Vice Chairman as provided above, if it shall later become necessary to remove any of said appointees and they cannot again agree on said removal, then each may remove any appointee made individually by them under the provisions of this rule and may thereafter appoint their replacement.

Rule 19(d)

Alternates to State Committee Meetings: ~~Given that proxies are strictly prohibited at any official precinct meeting, committee meeting, or county or state convention of the Oklahoma Republican Party, each county may elect up to two (2) alternates at their biennial County Convention to~~ Two alternates shall be elected by the regular biennial County Convention. Alternates may attend any State Committee meeting as an alternate during their term; one alternate may stand in for any one, but only one, of the following elected positions and no others: Chairman, Vice Chairman, or either of the two State Committee Members, if any of the aforementioned cannot attend the meeting in person, and they have requested for an alternate to attend on their behalf.

A District Committee Member or Alternate is not precluded from serving as a State Committee Alternate. ~~Elected Alternates may also be elected District Committee members if they are willing and able to hold both positions; however, it is not required. If neither of the most recently elected District Committee Members wants to be an Alternate, then a special election for one or both of the two (2) Alternate positions can be called by the County Chairman of the County Committee.~~

Alternates to District Committee Meetings: Two alternates shall be elected by the regular biennial County Convention for each District within the County. Alternates may attend any District Committee meeting as an alternate during their term; one alternate may stand in for any one, but only one, of the following elected positions and no others: Chairman, Vice Chairman, or either of the two District Committee Members, if any of the aforementioned cannot attend the meeting in person, and they have requested for an alternate to attend on their behalf. A State Committee Member or Alternate is not precluded from serving as a District Committee Alternate.

Any Alternate must be a registered Republican that is elected within their county at the biennial County Convention or by special election in the case of a vacancy by the process outlined in Rule 10(f) and shall have the same rights and privileges as the State or District Committee voting member for whom they are the Alternate.
