Rule 16(e)

Delegates to Conventions: The State Executive Committee shall determine the number of delegates by which each county is entitled to be represented in any Congressional District Convention or State Convention, apportioned among the counties according to the number of votes cast for the Republican nominee for President or Governor in each county at the preceding General Election. The State Call shall set forth the number of delegates each county is entitled to be represented by in the State and/or Congressional Conventions. If only a portion of a county lies within a congressional district, apportionment to such county of delegates to each Congressional District Convention shall be based upon the number of votes cast within that portion of the county which lies within the congressional district.

The County Executive Committee of each county shall determine the number of delegates each precinct is entitled to be represented by in any County Convention, apportioned among the precincts of the County according to the number of votes cast for the Republican nominee for President or Governor in each precinct at the preceding General Election. Each precinct shall be entitled to at least one delegate. Such county shall specify the number of delegates each precinct is entitled to in the County Convention. ~~The Oklahoma Federation of Young Republicans shall be allowed twenty (20) delegates to the State Convention. Said delegates will be allocated by the State Executive Committee of the Young Republicans and must be named prior to Republican County Conventions. The Oklahoma Federation of College Republicans shall be allowed at least ten (10) delegates to the State Convention with said delegates being at least eighteen (18) years of age by the time of the State Convention to which they are delegates; and said delegates being a member of the Oklahoma Federation of College Republicans at least one (1) college semester. Delegates who are members of voting auxiliary organizations shall choose whether to vote as an auxiliary delegate or a county delegate.~~

Rule 19(d)

Alternates to State Committee Meetings: ~~Given that proxies are strictly prohibited at any official precinct meeting, committee meeting, or county or state convention of the Oklahoma Republican Party, each county may elect up to two (2) alternates at their biennial County Convention to attend any State Committee meeting as an alternate during their term; one alternate may stand in for any one, but only one, of the following elected positions and no others: Chairman, Vice Chairman, or either of the two State Committee Members, if any of the aforementioned cannot attend the meeting in person, and they have requested for an alternate to attend on their behalf.~~
~~Elected Alternates may also be elected District Committee members if they are willing and able to hold both positions; however, it is not required. If neither of the most recently elected District Committee Members wants to be an Alternate, then a special election for one or both of the two (2) Alternate positions can be called by the County Chairman of the County Committee. Any Alternate must be a registered Republican that is elected within their county at the biennial County Convention or by special election and shall have the same rights and privileges as the State Committee voting member for whom they are the Alternate.~~
Each county shall elect at their county convention two alternates to serve as state/district alternates, or State Committee Members and District Committee Members can be elected as alternates to the opposite committee. Alternates may attend any State or District Committee meeting as an alternate during their term; at any particular meeting one alternate may stand in for any one, but only one, of the following elected positions and no others: Chairman, Vice Chairman, or either of the two State Committee Members, or any of the District Committee Members if any of the aforementioned cannot attend the meeting in person.
Counties that cover more than one congressional district shall elect two state alternates plus two alternates from each congressional district within the county. State Alternates may only stand in at state committee meetings, Congressional District Alternates may only stand in at congressional district committee meetings.
Any Alternate must be a registered Republican that is elected within their county at the biennial County Convention or by special election in the case of a vacancy per rule 10f and shall have the same rights and privileges as the State or District Committee voting member for whom they are the Alternate. The alternate may automatically assume the role if the voting member is not present.
